

https://www.echobh.com/job/senior-software-developer__trashed/

Senior Software Developer

Description

The Senior Software Developer will be involved throughout the development lifecycle with responsibility to mentor, coach and lead Junior Software Developers through the design, development and QA processes. The Senior Software Developer provides subject matter expertise as it relates to all aspects of software development and support to Echo's product development team. The Senior Software Developer will work with others to research, define, and implement appropriate application architecture components that will support Echo's applications.

Responsibilities

Primary Responsibilities:

- Develops software code necessary to complete the assigned projects
- Writes, modifies, and debugs software
- Identifies and reports problems in new and existing software
- Assists in the preparation of internal software design documentation
- Profiles, analyzes and optimizes the software he/she is responsible for implementing
- Employs best practices for design, development, unit testing and test plan development
- Writes and conducts unit and integration tests
- Leads and participates in peer code reviews
- Research, define, and implement appropriate application architecture components
- Mentor and coach less experienced software developers
- Assist in defining and implementing software development standards and procedures

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Expert knowledge of Java, Servlets, JSP, javascript, HTML and CSS
- Expert knowledge and experience developing complex database-based applications with major DBMS such as MS SQL Server, Oracle, MySQL, etc.
- Experience researching and incorporating advanced Java frameworks to meet application requirements
- A strong understanding of modern web practices to create an efficient user-experience
- Demonstrated leadership role(s) within development teams leading and mentoring other developers

Qualifications

Minimum of five years of web development experience is required

Hiring organization

The Echo Group

Employment Type

Full time

Job Location

15 Washington Street, 03818, Conway

Working Hours

Monday – Friday 8AM-5PM

Date posted

June 3, 2019